How to Get the Most Out of Your Contractor...

Understand how big or complex your project might be, you might want to hire a:

- specialty contractor, who installs specific products like cabinets and bathroom fixtures.
- architect, who designs homes, additions, and major renovations – especially ones involving structural changes.
- designer or design/build contractor, who provides both services.

Do Your Research

- How long has the contractor been in business? We've been in business for over 30 years.
- What kind and amount of insurance do they carry? We carry general liability that also covers our subcontractors.
- Whom will you be working with during the renovation? We assign a project manager that is with you every step of the way, from sales to completion.
- What is the general cost for the type of renovation you want?
Try to find a few cost estimates that you are open to paying for your project by researching the average cost of your project in your state.
- Does the contractor service your area? Here is a list of the areas we service here.
